There's no such thing. AS A CIRCLE

There's no such thing as a circle.

Honestly, as far as anyone can figure. And figures, do go on. Broken down into parts is only confirmation. Right now. There is no such thing as a circle.

We wont give it a name some perception or belief of difference and same.

The circular logic that plots and confounds. Transcendentally leading to a cheated crown.

( an arrow pointing direction is a weapon )

In letters posted already open; grown in gardens of yesterday and tomorrow.

A branch of memory before it's pen was made. Writing ink towards your page.

And so in circles in thought can show. No angle can be right. In it's universe; right now
